Colonel W. D. Haas, Jr.
Bunkie, Louisiana

Dear Colonel Haas:

Delwin again has asked me to answer your letter to him of March 30, 1959, relative to the Dave Ferry matter.

The last time you discussed this matter with me, which was by long distance telephone about two weeks ago, I reported that I was still awaiting the report of your special investigator, in which you concurred. You told me that you were trying to reach your investigator by telephone to expedite the matter and would advise me when you heard from him.

Do you wish to proceed without this report? If so, please advise me.

With best personal regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH G. INGRAHAM
Lt. Colonel, CAP
